this is a double aught this is an aught

2. ((A Book About Death SBCSAE 005: 1200.75-1211.22))

but I still miss my grandmother and I I certainly miss my dog

3. ((Actual Blacksmithing SBCSAE 001: 302.39-320.88))

when we put em on a horse's hoof all we do they're already made they're round we pick out a size you know we'd like look at the horse's hoof and say okay this is a double aught this is an aught this is you know what s- what size and double aught and aught are the ones that are most popular

4. ((A Book About Death SBCSAE 005: 45.63-60.49))

the fact of the matter is that the marriage itself I mean as hellish as it was it's like it pulled me under like a giant octopus

and then all the bones and you know all the way up from the shoulder down and then from the hip down you know all the way down to the hoof and then the bone in the hoof and then all the wall and you know of the hoof and what everything was called there
